NEWSLETTER NO. 8

Dear friends and members,

1.) Third Congress of the EAL

2. By referendum on 8th of February 1998 the Bavarian Senate, in which premises the EAL held its 3rd congress due to the Senate's 50th anniversary of the taking up of work, will be abolished.

3.) Activities in the Past 6 Months

4. The Austrian Association of Legislation in cooperation with the College for Administration Science of Speyer (Hochschule für Verwaltungswissenschaften Speyer) organized a symposium in Salzburg, 22-23rd of January 1998, on "Legislation and Modernization of the Administration". For more information on the event and the papers presented, please address to our member Prof. Dr. Heinz Schäffer (Universität Salzburg, Institut für Verfassungs- und Verwaltungsrecht, Kapitelgasse 5-7, A-5020 Salzburg).

5.) Future Activities

12. Munich

13.

b) Other Publications

Klaus Winkel: „Die Umsetzung von EG-Richtlinien in deutsches Recht unter besonderer Berücksichtigung der Erfahrungen in der Praxis“, in: Zeitschrift für Gesetzgebung 2/1997, 12. Jg., pp. 113-126.

„The implementation of EC-Directives in German Law with special consideration of the experiences in practice.“

14.) Board activities

15. After the amendment of the statute in Munich, the board achieved the recognition from the revenue-office as a non profit organization.

The board complied with the demand of the European Commission, Directorate-General 1A to update the EAL-Registration in the Central Consultancy Register. In order to make further use of this medium, every member is kindly asked to inform the board about any European transnational project it is involved in. For being registered, the project needs to be characterized by the sector (i.e. environment, banking, financial services, etc.), the activity (i.e. general studies, evaluation, training, etc.) and the donor (with the amount). Thank you in advance for your precious help that will be in the interest of all members.

16.) Varia

17. The board would like to draw your attention to the "Academy of European Law Trier" ("Europäische Rechtsakademie Trier (ERA)"). The Academy is a foundation that aims at the extension of knowledge in European and Community Law of practitioners through further vocational training and at the opening of a forum for the exchange of experience and views on European Law. The extensive annual programme for 1998 is available in English, French and German and can be ordered at the ERA, Dasbachstr. 10, D-54292 Trier, Tel.:+49/651-14710-0, Fax: +49/651-14710-20, Email: ERATRIER@MSN.COM.

The Institute of Advanced Legal Studies (University of London) is offering for the second time the "Sir William Dale Visiting Fellowship in Legislative Drafting". The Fellowship is named in honour of our member Sir William Dale in acknowledgement of his contribution to scholarship in this field. Applicants should contact: D. E.
